Minutes, March 5, 2018

Meeting called to order at 7:00 pm by President, Janet Wright

Opening remarks, welcome

Update on Nadine by Linda MacAfee: she has finished her treatments, but still has a long way to go. She is in good spirits. A card is being circulated for members to sign.

Membership directories are available from Sue Hayden. See her at the break if you haven't picked yours up yet.

Approval of Agenda, as published in March , 2018 newsletter.

Motion to approve the agenda by Catherine Sutherland and seconded by Diane Scott . Motion approved.

Approval of minutes, as published in March, 2018 newsletter

Motion to approve the minutes by Jolene Clark and seconded by Catherine Sutherland. Motion approved.

Business arising from the minutes

A reminder to all that members of the Houlton guild are coming to our April meeting. Chairs of committees will be asked to give their job descriptions for their positions. The job descriptions also need to be forwarded to Catherine so they can be included in the Constitution.

Correspondence

There was one thank you note from Marilyn Rose thanking members for the +150 cancer comfort bags. Linda Markey has more kits available to sew. You can pick them up anytime and return them to Linda in the fall. The pattern is on the website.

Treasurer's report, as published in the January, 2018

Motion to approve the Treasurer's report by Kim Reeleder and seconded by Catherine Sutherland. Motion approved.

New business

Constitution, Catherine Sutherland

Catherine passed around copies of the Constitution. The discussion included ideas to solve the quorum problem - Robert's Rules of Order suggest 40% + 1. Members might be able to ratify by email if they cannot attend. Roles and Responsibilities and Policies can be discussed at any time, separate from the Constitution. A Privacy Policy was also discussed especially concerning Sunshine Committee sending cards, and the The Who or why for Community Quilts. Marilyn Sarchfield suggested that any amendment to the Constitution needs to be signed by the President and the Secretary, dated, and scanned before publication.

Nominating Committee

Volunteers are as follows: Janet Melanson, Kathy Boone, and Coleen McKee. The Treasurer's position is the only one needing to be filled. They will report back in April.

Committee reports, as published in the March, 2018 newsletter

Motion to approve the committee reports by Jolene Clark and seconded by Kathy Boone. Motion approved.

Super Saturday, Betty Doherty and Sue Hayden

March is an intermediate free motion quilting class. All of the requirements are in the Newsletter. Please consider coming to Super Saturday to work on your own project if you do not wish to attend the class.

April is the Mondo bag. The cost is $10 for the grids and pattern. Signing up is a commitment to pay because the materials have to be ordered.

May is the clam shell quilt using the quick curve ruler.

President's Quilt, Janet Wright

All the details are on the website, contact Janet Wright if you have any questions.

Riverside, Trisha Robinson

Volunteers are needed. Please see Trisha. Member(s) need to consider volunteering to run this wonderful outreach program next year.

Community Quilts, Gail Lawrence

Muriel Moorecroft donated fabric to the guild. Some is for Community quilts, some for Cancer bags, retreat projects, etc. Gail will not be chair next year so members are encouraged to consider taking on this valued committee.

Program, Jolene Clark

Jolene reminded everyone of the June challenge - a minimum 12" x 12" square using the color of the year - ultra violet.

The activity for the month was a Get to Know Your Neighbour. Answer 25 questions, the first two pairs to finish win Tim Horton gift cards. Winners were Terry Harcombe, Judy Boyd, Janet Melanson and Diane Scott.

Jolene also enquirer if members were interested in making paper pieced cup cakes in honor of the guild's 20th anniversary.

The fat quarter draw this month had many participants. Winners were Suzanne Hunter, Shirley Renoir, Donna Lawrence, Joan Anderson, and Joan Prosser. The April theme is red, white and blue Stars and Stripes in honor of our Houlton guests.

Audit of Treasurer's books

Janet Melanson will do this in April before the Annual Meeting in May to make a smooth transition for the new Treasurer.

Borrowing a quilt rack

Sue Hayden asked to borrow a quilt rack to display a quilt she has made and is donating to a charity for their fundraiser. She moved a motion to do this and it was seconded by Vicki Gillis. Motion approved.

Show and tell

Another grand showing!

Fabric Draw

Winners were Sheri Gillis, Maxine O'Donnell and Shirley Renouf.

Next meeting April 9, 2018. This is the SECOND Monday because of Easter.

Meeting adjourned at 9:17 pm

Respectfully submitted by Sandy Corey

Quilting at Riverside Court

Riverside Court Quilting with Senior's report, April, 2018

Spring is coming and we are on the downward side of quilting with the seniors for the 2017/18 quilting year. Volunteers are needed for the following dates: April 10 (at least one); April 24 (at least 2); May 8 (at least 2); May22 (at least 2); June 5 (at least 2); and June 19 (at least 3)

The following have volunteered for these dates: April 10 (Kim Reeleder, Donna Lawrence, Linda Markey); April 24 (Charlotte Cook, Ellen Kee); May 8 (Charlotte Cook, Suzanne Hunter); May 22 (Kim Reeleder, Suzanne Hunter); June 5 (Charlotte Cook, Suzanne Hunter); June 19 (Suzanne Hunter).

If you can give a couple of hours of your time for one of these date, it would be greatly appreciated. Thanks to all who have already done this and a special thanks to Gail Lawrence for getting all the quilts we complete with the seniors, ready. She does this all year and this is a big part of the success we have with the seniors we work with.

Finally, if any of our members have crochet cotton they want to get rid of, we can use it to tie the quilts the seniors work on.

Cat bed report

I am pleased to say that members have been very diligent in making and completing beds for the cages of cats and small dogs being housed at both Debec and Florenceville animal shelters for the 2017/18 quilting season. I was able to deliver a 100 beds to the DuRomin Animal shelter (Florenceville) in late March and have at least another 80 beds to deliver to the Carleton County Animal shelter (Debec) in the very near future.

I thank all our members for their donations which are greatly appreciated by the staffs of both shelters. Please continue to make these beds as this is a never ending need.

Charlotte Cook Victoria Corner Sewing Machines 2282 Route 103

Mid next week, on March break, I should have in my new thread colours...all ordered, and they are on their way. About 60 new colours arriving in the Bottom Line and Isacord lines. I have had nothing but great reviews from these two lines. And happy machines!

Around the first week in March should also see the arrival of some quilting stencils. I've had people asking if I was carrying them, so I've ordered a few to see how well they go.

And the big news is the new Memory Craft 6700 Professional. I have had one in the shop for a couple of weeks now, and I love it!

The ivory/white tone on tones are also popular. I've had to re-order several bolts. And lots of quilt batting leaving the shop, which is great!

Thanks to everyone for all your support and visits to the store. Victoria Corner Sewing Machines has been everything I had hoped it would be. I'm here most of the time, but best to call to ensure that I'm home.
