New business

Did you know you can get it at Guild?

Janet Wright has introduced a new idea of sharing goods and services offered by guild members. Charlotte Cook has quilting supplies- sewing machine sales and repairs, backing, batting, thread, needles, etc. at her home in Victoria Corner. Ann Grant showed her products from her husband, Greg's, beekeeping- honey, honeycomb, lip balm, body butter, and wax infused food wraps. Please see these members if you are interested. Also, any other members who have goods or services, please see Janet.

Holly Irving, Trish Robinson

Holly Irving of Lofty Stitches in Fredericton is having a sale of Babylock sewing machines. A separate email was sent to members providing details of the sale.

December meal, Janet Wright

The December meal will be a potluck. The ladies are no longer catering and it was too late to consider other options. Members whose last names begin with A to L are asked to bring food. The remaining members will be asked to bring food to the June potluck. Volunteers to help with the potluck are Joyce Richard, Rita Schmitt, and Kathy Boone. Set up starts at 5:00, dinner at 6:00, and meeting at 7:00.

Membership Directory, Sue Hayden

Sue was absent, so Janet Wright explained that to save paper, we will reuse last year's directory, get photos of all the new members, and insert them at the December meeting. Photos will be taken tonight. Please bring your directory to the December meeting to facilitate this process.

Committee reports, as published in the November 2018 newsletter

Quilt Canada Bus Trip, Janet Wright

Super Saturday, Betty Doherty and Sue Hayden

Neither Betty nor Sue was in attendance. Details on the pillow project are in the newsletter and sign up sheet is on the table. There will be no December super Saturday. The next one is in January.

Possible teacher, Sandy Corey

Sandy spoke about quilting with rulers. There are a couple instructors around and asked anyone interested in a possible class in 2019 to please see her at the break.

Quilt Show, Betty Doherty and Sue Hayden

Jackie Walker handed out raffle tickets. Please sell as many as you can because the raffle profits are a large fund raiser for the guild and are crucial for the purchases of new/additional racks. Set up will be on May 2nd with the show on May 3rd and 4th. The theme is Pieces of Time. There will be a section for items from each year of the guild. The committees are up and running. Volunteer signups will be in the new year.

Riverside Quilting, Trish Robinson

Quilt completed at Riverside two weeks ago was shown. Please see Trish to sign up as she needs 4-6 volunteers each time. The residents at Riverside both appreciate and benefit from this initiative. Set up is at 1:00, and tea and cookies are at 2:00 pm. If you are free on a Tuesday afternoon please consider volunteering. Because their Remembrance Day ceremony is on Tuesday, it is moved to Wednesday.

Retreat, Janet Wright and Diane Scott

Total success. There were 40 attendees! Hosting for next year is open. We are booked in for the next 5 years, dates are in the newsletter. Anyone wanting the instructions for the basket project, please see Janet Melanson at the break.

Ellen Armour

Ellen spoke about the upcoming workshop using the pattern Sunset Sky. Please pick up your supplies from Ellen. It is important to come with your fabric pressed and ordered and your papers trimmed according to the instructions. The instructor will have a trunk show on the Friday evening at 7:00 pm. All are welcome. Please contact Ellen for any additional information as well as the guild Facebook page.

Program, Janet Melanson

Janet talked about half square triangles (HSTs). She gave a handout explaining several different ways to create HSTs. Especially were the methods of sewing around the outside edges of squares and then cutting them diagonally into fourths or eight wedges, diagonally and then up and down and across.

She then went on to talk about and show projects with HSTs arranged as pinwheels. Using slashing to offset the pinwheels because they can look wonky if not lined up absolutely correctly. She also showed many other layouts including chevrons, spinning spider leg, diamonds, flying geese, etc. She also showed using pieced strips in the pinwheels.

Member challenge is to use any one of these in a project.

Also UFO is due in December!

Tuesday Debec Quilters, Marilyn Sarchfield

Saturday, November 17, 2018 in the United Church hall the annual Snowflake Craft Bazaar. From 9 TIL noon.

Show and tell

Another great display of work by the members. The rugs/mats from Super Saturday were on display.

Winners were: Sandy Corey, Joan Anderson, and Kathy Boone.

Meeting adjourned, 9:07 pm.

Next meeting December 3, 2018 at 7:00 pm, potluck dinner at 6:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted, Sandy Corey

Program

UFO Challenge is due this month. If you have completed a UFO for this month, please see me for a ballet. Did anyone do a half square triangle Quilt or table runner from last month. Please see me for a ballet, you may win a prize.

Tip of the month. I will try to give a new tip each month and if you have any to share please let me know. This month it is back stitching your borders or stay stitch around 1/4 inch if it is pieced. This will prevent the borders from coming unstitched when quilting. Just like sewing on a button, you make a knot to keep it in place.

Tonight we will see different ways to put blocks together, (see hand out sheet.) You do not have to follow the pattern because another layout might look better. Remember how many ways a Log Cabin Quilt can be arranged.

Thanks

Library Report

Hello All,

At the November meeting I introduced nine new books for the library! They are as follows, 100 Modern Quilt Blocks by Tula Pink, Jelly Roll Bargello Quilts by Karen Hellaby, Kaffe Fassett's Quilts in Ireland, Kaffe Fassett's Quilts in Morocco, Merry Makers by Lissa Alexander, Animal Quilts by Juliet van de Heyden, Silk Ribbon Embroidery by Di van Neikerk, Modern Quilt Blocks by Emily Dennis and a new pattern called Pickin Pumpkins.

I hope every one gets a chance to enjoy the new books and be inspired for a future project!

Last month 11 books were overdue and 17 were signed out. Remember with the new books try not to keep them too long so we all get a chance to see them.

Currently I have three new patterns on order and I am sorting through some patterns that Shirley Dunphy generously donated to our guild.

See you in December ,Merry Christmas!

Ann Grant

I have been doing a lot of machine quilting as of late. I found these new cheater (self-threading) needles. My old ones have a slit in the top of the needle and it would sometimes (OK, a lot of the time) shred my thread. These work like a dream. Hide them knots!!

January 7th is our next meeting at 7 pm (NOT the FIRST MONDAY OF MONTH)
