Privacy Policy: Checked other guilds and provincial policies and they are all different.

Non profit organizations – it is not necessary as we have no commercial activity. Fundraising is ok. Commercial activity is selling and bartering membership list which we do not do.

We have a clause in the membership registration form for permission for picture in directory and web site. Dorothy Davis will get the list so that those people's pictures are not posted.

Motion that a line will be added to the Duties of Executive Members and Committee chairs to regarding the privacy policy. Motion made by Catherine Sutherland, discussion and seconded by Shelley Dionne.

There was also a discussion regarding security concerns and lists going out.

Committee Reports as published in Newsletter: Catherine Sutherland and Maxine O'Donnell

Tip of the month. If you miter your borders make sure they are an accurate 45 degrees. If you are out an 1/8 " this equals 1/4", and if you do this twice, it equals 1/2" which makes a wonky border and does not quilt out.

This month we are continuing the Pinwheel rearrangement to make more blocks. We are also starting the Row by Row. The first row is Stockings. See handout sheet for directions. Don't forget the Canadian Quilters Association (CQA) started the 52 blocks for 52 weeks. This is free on their web site. If anyone missed the handouts for December or January please see me . thanks Janet M^{for}

Library Report

Three new patterns and a book featuring the Judy Niemeyer method of paper piecing will be available this month. The patterns are the Poinsettia Table Topper, Tea Time Placemats and Dahlia Placemats.

We still have enough money for another book order this year so if there are any wish lists out there let me know!

Last month we had 21 books loaned and only 5 over due, that's great ladies :)

I will be away in February so Shelley Dionne has generously offered to open the library for me.

See you in March,

Ann Grant
