The theme will be 20 years of Quilting. There will be a special section at the show do display quilts from the 20 years. The raffle quilt was displayed, it has yet to be quilted. Trish R is preparing a slide show to run on the tv screens in the foyer of the Ayr Motor Center. If you have any photos, please get them to Trish so they can be included.

Sunshine

Lynn (Taylor) Walker is quite ill. A card has been sent.

Retreat, Janet Wright and Diane Scott

23 members have signed up. Retreat is now available to members of other guilds.

Community Quilts, Shari Gillis

Shari took 13 baby quilts to URVH. There are moms having babies who have little or no resources for their new babies. The nurses have been making up gift bags to give them a bit of a start. They would be really grateful for more baby quilts. They cannot be tied, nor can they have any buttons, because both could be hazardous for the baby. Also receiving blankets, burping pads, etc. would be most welcome.

Program, Jolene Clark

Jolene reminded everyone of the June challenge - a minimum 12" x 12" square using the color of the year - ultra violet.

The topic for the month was reverse appliqué. Jolene demonstrated how simple raw edge was. She also referenced other methods including needle turn, fusible, freezer paper, and satin stitch. Decorative stitching at the edge is a great finish for the fusible and freezer paper methods. This technique will embellish and/or add depth to a quilt. Jolene challenged all members to give it a try and bring a reverse appliqué piece to the June meeting. Circles were especially emphasized.

The fat quarter draw this month had many participants. Winners were Vicki Ellis, Bonnie Sproull and Elaine Gullison. The June theme is birthday.

Show and tell

Another grand showing! The display of Mondo bags was great.

Fabric Draw

Winners were Linda McAfee, Donna Lawrence, Jolene Clark, and Lucille Kearney.

Next meeting June 4, 2018. The doors will open at 5:00. Pot luck at 6:00. Meeting at 7:00. There is no plan to the pot luck, just bring something delicious.

Meeting adjourned at 9:17 pm

new items at Victoria Corner Sewing Machines...

White 100% cotton batting 96" wide.

For the hand quilters, 100% polyester batting 96" wide. Much more uniform consistency than you often get in the packaged poly battings. This could certainly be used for machine quilting as well, creating a lighter weight quilt.

Also there is now 100% wool batting. As well as quilts, some prefer this for wall hangings.

Of course, still the regular battings in 96" and 120" widths, both 80/20 cotton/poly and 100% cotton. And several tone-on-tone cottons in whites and creams, both in 45" and 108".

More thread and needles... And more quilting stencils for both hand and machine quilting.

Also Ultimate Pounce marking pads and refills!

And don't forget the Janome sewing machines. Also repairs to all makes and models.

Come and visit! (I'm usually in the shop, but best to call before you come.)

Thanks for your support! It has been very appreciated!
