President's Message:

I hope everyone is staying safe and continuing to quilt. I wonder, at times, if I will ever be comfortable in public again. I wonder when the rest of Canada will actually get the virus under control. And, mostly, I wonder when I will see you all again. Until I do, please stay safe and wear your mask.

Community Project

Linda McAfee has a wonderful project for anyone who is interested - making pillow cases for the folks at Sanctuary House. Most arrive with very little. Pillowcases would serve two purposes, the first being something for each person who arrives, and secondly, to carry their stuff with them when they leave. For anyone who needs a pattern, Linda said she would drop some off at Janet's shop. Complete cases can be dropped at the shop as well. The staff at Sanctuary House think this is a wonderful idea. Let's see how many we can do! Sandy Corey

Retreat

WQG retreat is a go. There will be less people going but we are trying to get it organized as quickly as possible so we know if we have room for others. Sherida Giddings has been rescheduled for next year's retreat. I will be sending out an email to keep you all informed.

WQG Instructors Report

Due to Covid-19 we cannot bring in instructors. Also St Gertrude's does not have their policies set down for outside groups. I do have a couple of people that I am thinking of bringing in when time permits. Will update you later. As soon as we can I am planning on bringing Darcy Hunter in to learn her birds. I have talked about this before and I will bring up the information again closer to that time. Ellen

Library Report:

Since we cannot meet I have not purchased any books. I do not have any in mind to buy, so if you want a book ordered when we restart our meetings please let me know. Remember the list of books are on the web page. Ellen in September I sent one get well card to Diane Scott and one thinking of you to Lana Horn.

Linda

Refreshments:

This year I am taking on the task of the refreshments if we ever get to meet again ☺☺ I would like to change things up a bit by offering a selection of herbal teas if there would be any interest in that. Not everyone likes to drink caffeinated beverages after supper so maybe this would be a nice addition. If there is any interest in this or if anyone has other ideas they would like to see happen please email or message me.

Also I have seven new library books that I purchased last term and two new magazines, I will be showing them on retreat and giving them to Ellen to make available in the library for when we meet again.

Keep well,

Ann Grant

Registrar's Report, October, 2020

Registration is progressing well considering the way we are having to do this with as little physical contact as possible. Your registration of $20.00 by cash or cheque can still be delivered to Janet Wright at Don's Pawn Shop, 454 Main Street and time at your convenience. I have the membership cards and am completing them as Janet forwards your name to me. Kim Reeleader is sending me receipts as she gets your dues from Janet.

I am asking those members yet to register, to put your membership dues in an envelope, sealed, and with your full name on the front. Should you have some changes to the information we already have in our membership binder, you could include these on paper in your envelope with your membership dues. I will drop into Janet's and pick them up every few days. You will receive an e-mail from me to confirm that you are officially a registered member of the Woodstock Quilt Guild. You will have till the November meeting to rejoin, otherwise I will assume that you are not rejoining at this time.

For those who cannot drop off their membership dues to Janet Wright, you can send your dues by mail to Trisha Robinson, Woodstock Quilt Guild Registrar, 73 Parkhurst Drive, Grafton, N.B., E7N 1P2. Please note, the Guild is NOT setup to take e-transfers of funds.

As an update to the registration numbers, 36 quilters have registered to date. Some of you have already received your membership cards but not your receipts. I have these on file for you.

Thank you all, so much, for your co-operation and I do hope all of you will be joining us again this coming year in whatever format our meetings will take place. Happy quilting!

Quilting at Riverside, October Report, 2020

Until further notice, there will not be any quilting sessions with the Seniors. We are waiting for the go-ahead from Riverside and hope that this will change soon. Thank you for your understanding.
