Ellen's April Message

Greetings

Happy Spring, well it would be if Old Man Winter would go to bed... Hope you all have had at least 10 minutes a day to quilt (this is a challenge from Pat Sloan that I like) and enjoy life. Easter Sunday was a great day and I hope you were able to enjoy it as well.

Woodstock Quilt Guild Meeting

March 7, 2016

Meeting called to order at 7:00 pm by President Ellen Armour.

Approval of the Amended Agenda as distributed in the March Newsletter. Motion by Ellen Armour. Seconded by Kathy Boone. Motion Carried.

Approval of the February 1, 2016 minutes. Question posed: Where there any errors or omissions.

Marilyn Sarchfield noted the motion for money for travel was for the Gathering of the Guilds.

Motion to approve February 1st minutes. Motion by Janet Melanson. Motion seconded by Kathy Boone. Motion Carried.

New Business

Legacy Committee Head - we will table until Olivia returns.

Correspondence - nothing to report.

Treasurer's Report - The report was published in the March newsletter. Dorothy made motion to accept report. Motion seconded by Judy Boyd. Motion Carried.

Quilt Show 2017 - We require a new committee head for the 2017 Quilt Show. We will table until the April Meeting.

Fabric Draw - nothing to report.

Instructors - All information was published in the newsletter. Karen is getting the kits ready for the Ale Shack. We still have 4 spots open for the pet portraits class.

Bus Tour - We have 19 spots open. If you know of anyone that would like to attend please do invite!

Retreat - Registration is open. We would like to keep the whole facility open for us. We are at approximately 20 people. In April, we will open it up to the public and other guilds, to help us reach the 40 people.

Library - There is a new pattern in the library. It is called Fold N Stitch Wreath. It is a Flip and stitch. It makes a centerpiece or wreath. There will be an order placed for a new bag pattern. As well, there are two new books are in: Gorgeous Wool Applique and Strip your Stash.

Website - nothing to report

Newsletter - nothing to report.

Community Quilts -We gave out 3 quilts in Feb. and have received two completed for our stash.

Super Saturday - March 19th we will be working on Bramble Baskets. The supply list is in the Feb Newsletter. Things to bring: a 4 or 6" square ruler and a 16.5" square ruler to square up. If you have an extension table. If you have a 60 mm rotary. Must be very sharp. Every block requires one fat quarter. Minimum of 4 - as each basket has four colors. You need 4 contrasting fabrics.

Sunshine - nothing to report.

We need to form a Nominating Committee: It must have a Past President, a member from the current executive, a member at large. Susan Hayden, Teri and Diane.

Program - We have one more item coming. Tonight our first guild challenge is open for viewing. At break please go and browse and vote for one. Viewer's Choice. Trail Mix - please see newsletter for this month. The piece this month is a 4 patch. Tonight we are having a trunk show on Wall Hangings by Janet Melanson.

Winners for the Guild Challenge: 1st Place Judy Boyd with a Spring Pillow. 2nd place is Ellen Armour with a wall Hanging. 3rd place Beverley Ketch with a large bag.

Fabric Draw - Winners: Barb Long and Joan Prosser.

The next meeting is April 4th, 2016.

See you then.

Meeting adjourned.

Committee Reports

LIBRARY COMMITTEE REPORT

Another month has gone and here we are kicking off a new one so here is some Library information for the month of April.

Any Guild lady members who have books signed out can return them to the library before Guild meeting starts.

The library is in desperate need of a new storage cabinet for storing the books, magazines and Quilting tools. The one that we have is badly broken and the shelves are giving away with the weight of the books. Sheena and I have discussed the following possible solutions:

1. We need a very solid heavy duty wooden cabinet that will hold plenty of books and will not break. I have one at home that if I can find something to replace mine, my Husband would remodel mine with plywood and reinforce the back and shelves

OR 2. Perhaps a member of the guild has one that they possibly want to give up.....something with 2 solid doors and a bottom drawer would be a better solution for keeping the Quilting supplies separate from the books so these tools don't get damaged.

OR 3. Possibly get someone to build a cabinet made from plywood but also add the bottom drawer in which I have just the right one for that which I will explain more at the meeting.

A new pattern is available in the Library called: The Luxie Bag. I have started working on mine and really not hard to make.

We are looking for a Bargello Quilt book to add to the Library as there are some members are asking for one. We would like to know where we can get one and would appreciate any help from members to obtain such a book.

Thank You.

Your Librarians

Maxine ODonnell

Sheena Brooker

PROGRAM

The fabric challenge was a grand success. We gave out 30 little brown bags and 23 returned finished products. They were all so different and it is truly amazing to see the imagination in our guild. First Prize was overwhelmingly given to Judy Boyd. Second voted favorite was given to Ellen Armour and the third favorite was made by Beverly Ketch.

Magazine Challenge - We gave you a ripped page out of a magazine. The challenge is to make something inspired off that page. If you did not like the page you got, pick out another page. The goal is for you to participate and have fun. This needs to be finished and brought to the May meeting. There will be a view's choice voting and prizes will be awarded.

Trail Mix - Block 3 - Triple Four Patch

To make ONE triple four-patch block cut the following: totals in brackets

From assorted prints cut

- 2 (88) - 3 1/2" squares

- 4 (176) - 2" squares

From medium or dark print cut:

- 1 (44) - 1 1/4" x 12" strip

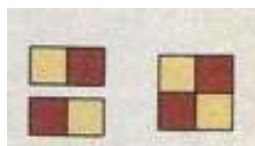

From a light print cut:

- 1 (44) - 1 1/4" x 12" strip

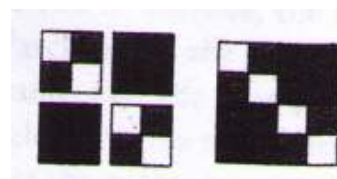

1. Aligning long edges, sew together the medium or dark print 1 1/4" x 12" strip and the light print 1 1/4" x 12" strip to make a strip set. Press the seam towards the darker fabric. Sub-cut the strip set into eight 1 1/4" wide segments.

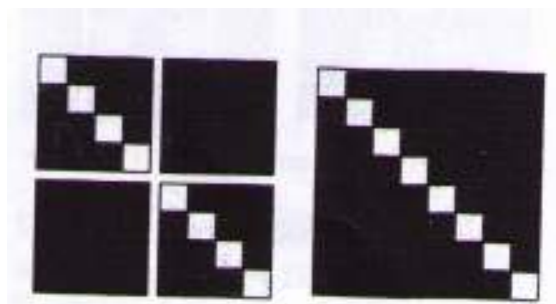

2. Sew together two segments to make a 4 patch. It should measure 2" square. Repeat to make a total of four Four-Patch units

3. Sew together two Four-patch units and two 2" squares in pairs. Note the placement of the light squares. Press. Join the pairs to make a double four-patch unit. Press. This unit will measure 3 1/2". Repeat to make a second double four-patch.

4. Sew together the double four-patch units and the 3 1/2" square. Press towards the charm square. Join two units together to make the triple four-patch. Block measures 6 1/2" and you need to make a total of 44.

SUPER SATURDAY, April 9th, 2016

SUPER SATURDAY SUPPLIES

This month will see Sue Hayden leading the session in her famous "Binding Class". Interested members MUST sign up at the Monday evening meeting. This is imperative as numbers are needed to know how many binders need to be created for participants. This is an excellent "must have" class which will provide you with samples that you will make in the class for each of the methods that Sue will explain and demonstrate.

You will need to bring your sewing machine and sewing kit. Fabric for your samples will be provided. A small cutting mat and rotary cutter, rulers, a small fine tipped marker, and "Wonder Clips" if you have them, would be good to have at your sewing table in order to complete your samples. There will be a charge of $10.00's for the binder and written materials as well as the regular $5.00 per day fee for the room rental.

We will be starting at 9 AM sharp! We suggest you arrive at 8:30 to get set up...latecomers will have to do their own catching up!!!

This is a class you won't want to miss as there is so much valuable information contained and provided.

Remember, sign up on Monday is essential in order to take the class and ensure that you will received the written materials.

Of course, those interested in just doing their own thing are also welcome as usual. Remember to bring your lunch.

Sue and Betty.

Instructors Committee

Karen Henry Classes—She is coming! She is coming! She is coming!

When: Pet Portraits- Friday, April 15

Red Shack For Ale- Saturday, April 16

Where: Elks' Club, Connell Street, Woodstock

If you ordered a kit for the Red Shack project, you will need to pay Karen Henry, our instructor, $25.00 on the day of the class.

We have FOUR spaces in the Pet Portrait class should anyone like to register at the Monday night meeting.

Participants need to be setting up for the 9:00 a.m. class by 8:30 a.m. You will need to bring your sewing machine and regular sewing kit as usual. You also need free motion capabilities and a free motion foot for your machine. Please read and check that you have all the necessary supplies for your project and this information is found on the class information and description sheets that were handed out at the time of your registration.

Looking forward to seeing you on April 15, 16th.

2016 Retreat

Just a reminder that we are still take registrations for our annual Retreat scheduled for October 20-23. You will find the registration form in with this newsletter. Cost is outlined on the form. Please return to any of the coordinators.

We have reserved the entire Villa in the quilt guild's name, which means we must have at least 40 people (and hopefully more!), so please, talk it up amongst yourselves. Invite friends and family! The more the merrier! We need to have your deposit on or before April 4. After April 4th, we will open registration up to other guilds. After that rooms are first come first serve until we are full! If we don't get 40 people, the Villa will most likely arrange to have another group share the facility with us. Let's try to fill it with Woodstock guild members and their friends and family!

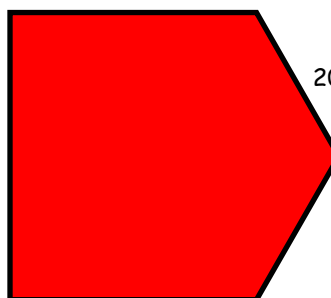

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to call us (our numbers are on the registration form) or send an e-mail to Annette at dykemans@nbnet.nb.ca

We hope you will make the retreat part of your fall plans!

Linda, Terry & Annette

Bus Trip Update Report - Very Important

So far I have received twenty registrations. I need many, many more to make the trip happen, so keep them coming! If you can't be at the March meeting, or if you do intend to go, could you please let me know- I can get your registration later.

I don't want to let all of the shops know that we're coming and then have to cancel.

Remember to invite friends and family too. This trip will be fun not only for quilters, but for any fiber enthusiast, particularly rug hookers, wool workers, and knitters too. It will also be fun for anyone who just wants to get away and have fun!!! I can be reached on my cell 323-1999 or by e-mail at hayden7@nbnet.nb.ca Let's fill that bus!

Sue Hayden

***See pages 9 and 10 for a complete description of the trip and the registration form....

Notice to Members

Keep those beds coming in. Remember the approximate size is 14 x 20 inches—not overstuffed or under stuffed. Be careful that pins, needles, paper, and other unwanted items don't get into the pillows accidentally. We don't want to injure these precious animals.

WOODSTOCK QUILT GUILD BUS TRIP DETAILS MAY 5-8, 2016

This fun bus tour is for Woodstock Quilt Guild Members, friends, family members, and fellow quilters/knitters/fibre enthusiasts. Maybe you have a friend who just wants to come along for the ride. That's great because we need a full bus to make this happen! Some of our stops are at shops which specialize in yarns, wools, hooking supplies, punch needle, patterns etc. while others are simply quilt shops. A few of our activities have absolutely nothing to do with quilting, but everything to do with enjoying life! So bring your smile, your friends, and a desire to have a great time, because this is going to be FUN!!!! Oh, girls, by the way, you're going to want to save your money for this trip, because you're going to want it to buy tons and tons of fabric and "stuff"!!!!!! It will make you happy!

Our itinerary is still a work in progress, however, here is a little idea of what we'll be doing.

The schedule and places we plan to visit outlined here are subject to change, as final details and arrangements with all shops and stops have not been made!!! So please don't hold me to it, because things come up and it might get better!!!!!!

THURSDAY MAY 5th

Early departure exact time TBA

Meet the bus at RE/MAX Hartford Realty 299 Connell Street Woodstock. A Fredericton pick-up will be scheduled if needed.

There is plenty of room to leave your car there if you wish to do so.

We have three shop stops in the Moncton area...the fun begins!!!! We'll be going to The Fabric Cupboard, Covered Bridge Quiltery, and London-Wul

Lunch stop TBA somewhere in the midst of our shopping frenzy

We are staying at the Holiday Inn Express in Moncton Thursday night.

FRIDAY MAY 6

We have two shop stops in Amherst NS. We'll be going to Deanne Fitzpatrick's Rug Hooking Studio and Mrs. Pugsley's Emporium. They are within walking distance of each other, and there will be something for everyone....quilt goodies, wool, rug hooking supplies etc. etc.!!!

Lunch stop TBA in the midst of day #2 shopping frenzy.

We will be driving to Wolfville Nova Scotia- and staying there for Friday and Saturday nights.

Just before we get to Wolfville we'll be stopping at the Avonport Discount Centre in Avonport NS. Hold on to your needles gals- tons of very reasonably priced fabric here!!!!

SATURDAY MAY 7

Centreville Quilt Show in Centreville NS. Not far from Wolfville, this is reported to be an excellent show... not only quilting, but rug hooking as well. Admission is $5.

Lunch will be at Lockett's Winery. A really enjoyable place to eat. It overlooks the spectacular Gaspereau Valley.

We will make a stop at The Gaspereau Valley Fibres Shop. This is a knitter's paradise, and wool artist's source of inspiration.

For the gardening enthusiast, we will be making a stop at The Tangled Garden. Beautiful optional garden tour for $5 as well as a shop that makes and sells absolutely wonderful jams, jellies, sauces etc. from their gardens. Really lovely shop!

If you fabric-a-holics want to return to the Avonport Discount Centre for that piece of fabric that you wished you had bought yesterday but didn't - (whatever were you thinking?!!!), we might squeeze in another stop there.

The bus will be able to drop off anyone in Wolfville if you would prefer to do some general shopping there. Main Street has some lovely shops to browse in as well as nice spots to stop for tea.

We will make arrangements for anyone who would like to have an upscale dining experience in Wolfville on one night. There are several lovely restaurants in the area. There is also a restaurant at the Old Orchard Inn for those who want to stay close to "home" and eat more simple fare. More info to follow.

I realize that this is a hectic schedule! We will incorporate a rest run by the bus on Saturday to bring anyone back to the hotel, should anyone want to take a little time off and rest!

SUNDAY MAY 8

Home again, home again "lickety split"! We'll leave relatively early to head straight home.

We'll be stopping at Patterson's in Sackville for lunch. We'll be home later in the afternoon - in time for any mothers on board who will be having a Mother's Day supper with their families!
