Sue's Message

Wow! Time flies when you're having fun! I can't believe that our quilting year is coming to an end. It has been such a long winter, and well deserved warm weather is on its way.

Monday night's meeting starts at 6 pm with our delicious potluck supper. Bring your appetites with you ladies. Quilters are outstanding cooks!

We will have our fabulous Anniversary Bus Trip to Augusta to look forward to in July, so many of us will see each other then. Also remember our retreat in September. It will be upon us before we know it!

Until then, I wish you all a fun filled, healthy and sunny summer. And if anyone wonders why you're doing something they don't quite get, simply reply, "because it makes me happy!". It works for me.

Happy stitching,

Sue

Sue's very successful "HAT" May meeting. Charming Ladies!

Library Committee: IMPORTANT NOTICE!! Please be sure to return your books to June meeting or, if you want to keep it for the summer, please come to the library table and re-sign your book out.

The following people have books that need to be returned or renewed in June:

Jean Cummings, Doreen Antworth, Amanda Habol, Linda Steeves, Judy Jackson, Sharlene Monteith, Dorothy Walls, Donna Lawrence, Janis Richard, Carolyn McBride

I have been eagerly reading internet posts from the International Quilt Market held in Houston in May and have written down lots of new books and patterns

No child of mine, “ I used to cry”.
Before the stork had fluttered by
Will ever throw a temper fit,
Or bite or scratch or whine or hit,
Or keep his bottle till he’s three,
Or worship super-hero’s on T.V.,
Or dawdle so he makes me late.
Or leave his carrots on his plate
Or act, in short like other kids ,who make their parents flip their lids.

HEAVENS NO !!!

But along with the patter of little feet
Came at least a million words to eat.
