Ellen's October Message

Greetings Ladies: With the days being warm and the nights and early mornings being cold we sure know Autumn is here.

The countdown is on, 17 days until the Annual Retreat, a nice relaxing place to concentrate on quilting.

We had a great Super Saturday making the disappearing hourglass. If you have never joined us, or it has been a long time, please consider joining us for lots of fun and friendship.

New Registration forms—new forms are being handed out and there are some additions such as Spouse (optional). If you have a spouse and want to divulge the information to us so that when we call your house, we can address your spouse with their name.

Terry Harcombe will now be sending out messages to WQG, so send your requests to Terry @ abv@telusnet.

Check out our website and see the changes and if you have any suggestions or comments for the website please see Jolene. woodstockquiltguild.weebly.com

There will not be a blog started for the guild as it is not needed with Jolene's changes we can get around the site easier.

See you at the meeting!

Ellen

Program - We have lots of things planned for you everyone. We would like to participate in what you would like. We will be doing a BOM. This month we are going to focus on accuracy. Cutting must be accurate. When working with 1/4" seams. Before beginning find 1/4" on your machine. Make sure you square you blocks up. The Angler 2. It is a great tool. You can tape it down to your machine and mark your seams and half square triangles. The BOM is a mini quilt. We will be working on it this fall. This month you just need to pick up your colors. One fat quarter or a fat eighth will be more than enough except the background. Five colors are required. Mug Rugs are bigger than a coaster and smaller than a placemat. We will be doing something with mug rugs in October.

Fabric Draw Winners - Dorothy Davis & Mary Dimock

Next meeting October 5, 2015. See you then.

Meeting adjourned.

Super Saturday

Quilting with Zentangles:

Zentangle is a form of drawing with a Pigma Pen on paper. It is easy, relaxing and creates a focus. This form of "doodling" was developed by Rick Roberts and Maria Thomas. Check out their site (www.zentangles.com). You were given a brief introduction in the October Program session and now you have a chance to take it to the quilting/free motion level in our craft.

You will need:

- Paper (drawing paper)                      pencil                      Black ink, fine tip, permanent Sharpie Pen
- Or a Micron 01 black ink pen
- Two 12" squares of Pima Cotton or white cotton that has a tight weave. Also a practice set of squares
- 2 1/2" by WOF of black or dark gray solid or tone on tone for a binding
- Two 12" squares of batting—one for final piece and one for practice piece
- Black Thread, White Thread
- 9" square of Freezer Paper
- A Friction pen OR Blue wash out marker
- Light box, if you have one
- Sewing machine with a free motion/darning foot
- Supreme Free motion slider if you have one
- All your regular cutting, pinning, rulers, etc. tools that you would bring to quilt with. A 12 1/2" OR 15" square ruler would be a good idea.

Library News

I have picked up 2 new quilt magazines and they are:

"Quilting Celebrations" by Patrick Lose, and

"McCall's Quilting," "The Best Of American Quilting" .....and this magazine also includes a small bonus book magazine for making quilt projects as well.

Both of these magazines have patterns for several Christmas projects and now is the time to get started on quilted presents to ensure they will be completed on time.

If I am unable to attend Guild meeting Monday night, Sheena will hopefully have these books to present to the membership as well as have them ready to be added to the library.

Thanks,

Sheena & Maxine

Sixty cat beds were delivered to the DunRomin Animal Shelter this May and they were most appreciative.
